

Costs Matter

- Costs matter.
- Over long time periods, high management costs and related expenses can be a significant drag on wealth creation.
- Passive investments generally maintain lower costs than the average actively managed investment by minimising trading costs and eliminating the costs of researching stocks.

Assumed 6.5% Annualised Return over 30 Years

